

Horrid Homework

UNLOCKED!

Welcome back, we hope you've had a good half term with some time to relax and regroup. We're back with many more ideas for Horrid Homework, and we'll be with you now until the end of term.

We're celebrating Brothers and Sisters day with a brand new podcast episode and Henry's been busy inventing a new family game - Name That Out of Tune. Try it at home; one member of the family has their headphones on and sings along to the song they're listening to, while everyone else tries to guess the name of the song. We also marked our very first Fancy Dress FriYAY Parade last week - such a success that we are certain it won't be the last, so if you have pictures (or want to join in again next week) then please send them in to us at novel@novelentertainment.co.uk

This week Gorgeous Gurinder is inviting us to join her Gardening Group - no real garden needed, just pencils, crayons and paper and a lot of imagination, as we're going to be conjuring up a garden for the StoryPalace, a brand new YouTube channel which will be opening its doors this week. StoryPalace is a safe place to find exciting new audio stories for children and we'd LOVE it if you could join in the fun and send us your garden creations so we can add them to the channel display. Everyone involved has donated their time, creativity and stories for free and you can show your support just by enjoying these great stories.

If you fancy a garden full of butterflies then Wild About Gardens have a wonderful guide to growing a secret butterfly garden, and National Growing For Wellbeing are offering free downloadable resource packs. And if you are looking for even more creative inspiration and fancy conjuring up a meadow for the StoryPalace then take a look at this challenge from Oxford Kindness Wave and you could also join Hospital Rooms for a weekly art treat, with a new release every week on a Thursday.

For littler ones, this week the Fimbles find a Rose, and Roly Mo is planting a Seed.

This Friday we'll be premiering a brand new Horrid Henry short, Imaginary Friends on Feet Up FriYAY, live streamed from 4pm on Friday on Henry's YouTube channel.

And on Saturday 6th June at 4pm we'll be LIVE on Facebook for the premiere of Wild Weekend on Netflix; join us for a chance to chat to Henry and all his friends.

As always, you can find us at all the usual places below, using #HorridHenryUnlocked and #HorridHenry

Stay safe and stay in touch!
