

Horrid Homework Mapping Monday

At last!!!

I've been waiting for this moment for a very long time.

Because I'm in charge now, that beetle bonce has finally realised that Girls Rule and now there's no stopping me!

And because I'm the biggest and bossiest Moody Margaret I Know, I'm going to be asking you some really big questions.

Like what is it about this big old world of ours that you love, are you a happy homebody or a wild wanderer? Where would you most like to go, what would you most like to do?

But first off, let's start with where we all are. Because we're all in different places – well not me and Henry of course, we're both in Ashton. But you're not in Ashton, are you?

So what I want to do first is for us to tell each other what it is that we love about living where we live. We're going to be writing and drawing about where we live, and if you want to you, you can always ask your grown up or a sibling or friend to give you some ideas as well.

Here are the questions I asked Henry:

- ✦ Where do you live? In a city, in a small village or by the sea?
- ✦ What is your favourite thing to do where you live?
Do you like to go to a special park or café?
- ✦ Is your town or city famous for anything?

And here are Henry's answers:

- ✦ You know I live in Ashton, slugsnot. Which isn't by the sea and it isn't a village.
- ✦ My favourite thing to do is raid the Secret Club. Or eat Sweet Tweets by myself in the morning, without any worms or bogey brains to worry about.
- ✦ My town is famous for having the Purple Hand Gang, Ashton Primary and the best Air Guitar Championship in the world. Plus the Killer Boys Rats played at the Crooked Corner once.

So there you go, very helpful answers from Helpful Henry (not!). I bet you can think of better answers, can't you?

How many things can you think of?

Horrid Homework Tell Me Tuesday

You came back!

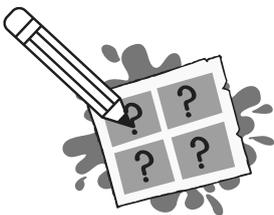

Good, today we're going to do more work mapping our world, and as today is Tell Me Tuesday I'm going to ask you to make a postcard all about where you live.

Think of it like this, if you wanted me and the Secret Club to come and visit you – alright then, if you wanted Henry and the Purple Hand Gang to come and visit instead, what would you choose to put on your postcard to persuade them?

First of all, think about how you are going to make your postcard – maybe you're going to draw something, or maybe you're going to make a collage, or maybe you're thinking of making a short video telling us all about the great things we can do.

Here are some of the things I'm going to include in my video postcard, all about Ashton:

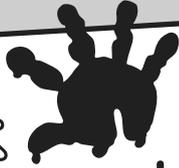

1. It's home to Ashton Primary School
2. Our winning football team is called Ashton Athletic
3. The best club in Ashton is The Secret Club – definitely not the Purple Hand Gang!
4. Boodle Poodles rock! And I've got the only one in Ashton. Well, I did have one. And then it left home. But that's another story.

Try and make your postcard as bright and colourful as you possibly can, and when your postcard is ask a grown-up if they can send it to Henry – you can find out how in the Grown Ups Homework letter.

Horrid Homework

Worldwide Wednesday

Hello!

Here we are again. And today we're going to do something really important, because we're going to be making our very own flag to wave to tell everyone how great our places are.

You know that Henry and I already have our very own flags.

My flag for The Secret Club is black with a white skull and cross bone.

The Purple Hand Gang flag is purple with a handprint.

Mine is the best, of course.

What will yours look like?

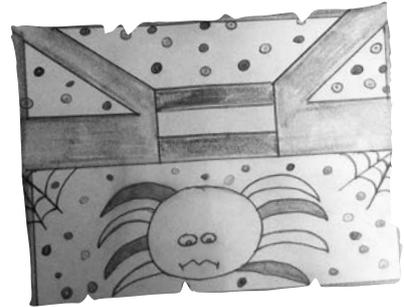

It can be:

- ✖ any colour
- ✖ any shape
- ✖ have pictures on it
- ✖ have words on it
- ✖ have signs or symbols on it

Here are a few flags from around the world to get you started:

Wales has a bright red dragon
Canada has a maple leaf

And here is an extra special flag, because Outstanding Ollie created this for us as his idea for a GrossWorld flag!

Whatever you decide to put on your flag, you can be sure that it will stand out, because it's YOURS!

And when you've finished making your flag, why don't you put it in your window so everyone can see your flag.

And if you can, ask your grown up to send me a picture so we can see what you've been up to!

Horrid Homework Thinking Thursday

And now, I've got a very special treat for you all from a very special Horrid Homeworker; Outstanding Ollie has created a quiz for you to impress everyone around you (and maybe yourself too if you have a go first!).

I tried this out on Henry and guess what, he couldn't answer all the questions, what a bogey brain! Though he did make me promise to tell you that I couldn't answer all the questions either, so there you go, I've told you now.

So, are you sitting comfortably? Good, then let's begin!
Drum roll and off we go....

PS Ollie thought you might like the answers straight away so he's put them in red for you.

1. In which country will you find the Eiffel tower ?

France (in Paris)

2. On which continent will you find Brazil?

South America

3. Which flag has a big red circle on it?

Japan

4. Where will you find Buckingham Palace?

London

5. What is the capital of Spain?

Madrid

And if this leaves you wanting more, then check out our Saturday Social this week, where we're going to be giving you another chance to shine!

So, the only thing I have left to say is Henry is a bogey brain, but you already know that, Moody Margaret for President, and of course stay safe and stay in touch!
